BARBEQUE
KETTLES

weber®

The all new Weber Gas Barbecue Kettles are offered in the same tradition of quality and versatility that identifies the Weber Charcoal Kettle.

Weber Gas Kettles are designed to give years of fun-filled cookouts with the ease, convenience and dependability of modern gas.

Besides the fun and convenience the flavor's there too. As a result of the meat drippings falling on the hot lava rock our gas kettle gives the same zesty barbecue flavor that has made our charcoal kettles so popular.

2 GAS TYPES Natural Gas . . . L.P.G.

HIGH-SEARING POSITION

With the burner up, the direct flame sears meat quickly sealing in all the natural flavor and juices.

LOW-BROILING, ROASTING POSITION

With the burner in the down or indirect position—broil or roast "Flare-up Free." The flame is concealed below our exclusive flame shield which guards against flare-up while radiating heat to the lava rock to give your meal that zesty, outdoor cooked flavor.
